

South East Asia Wonders

As you travel through South-East Asia you will see a sea of smiling faces and a range of beautiful unthinkable landscapes. You will sample culinary delights the likes of which you have had before and you will see the scars of a troubled past. This trip covers everything that makes this wonderful region, the place it is today.

Note: There are many flights included in this trip as it is the quickest and safest way to travel in the region, if you would like to cut down the number of flights we are more than happy to arrange alternative methods of transportation for you although this may alter the length of your trip. We can also reduce the number of guided tours if you wish to explore more by yourself.

Days 1-4: Bangkok
