

Fact sheet: ban on direct flights between Russia and Georgia

Direct flights per week in operation prior to 8 July 2019 flight ban

111 flights operated by Russian airlines

*each airplane image corresponds to 20 flights per week

41

flights operated by Georgian airlines

Expected annual revenue losses to airlines

225

$ million - Russian airlines

*each "$" sign corresponds to $20 million in revenue collected by airlines (includes base fare, surcharges, taxes and fees)

61

$ million - Georgian airlines

Reduced annual air travel demand between Russia and Georgia

206

thousand fewer visitors from Russia to Georgia

*each icon corresponds to 50 thousand fewer travelers

44

thousand fewer visitors from Georgia to Russia

Expected loss in consumer welfare

63

$ million loss in welfare to Russian tourists

*each frown face icon corresponds to $20 million in loss in consumer welfare

14

$ million loss in welfare to Georgian tourists

Expected annual impact on tourism spending

29

$ million lower spending by tourists in Russia

*each $ sign corresponds to $20 million

111

$ million lower spending by tourists in Georgia

Share of passengers diverted to regional hubs

63

% of air travelers diverted to regional hubs
(such as Minsk, Riga, Almaty and Istanbul)

For more information: Click here

contact@veritasglobal.ch

www.veritasglobal.ch