

Come Follow Me- for Primary page 106

"Invite the children to name places they would like to visit, and write them at the top of the road. What would Happen if we turned onto the wrong road? How is Repentance like getting back on the right road?"

If age appropriate, blind fold, each member of the class/family. Give them different colors of markers and see if they can stay on the road.

