PARTNER ORGANISATION OVERVIEW

The Solomon Islands National Institute of Sport is an initiative of the Solomon Islands Government, to support athletes, coaches and National Federations of Solomon Islands who compete at international competitions, including sports that represent Team Solomon's at the major multi-sport events.

SINIS provides centralised performance services, programs and training facilities to 1200 athletes and 100 coaches on scholarships across 30 different sports.

Solomon Islands are hosting the 2023 Pacific Games and SINIS has been established to support the preparations of Team Solomon's.

SINIS works with each sports National Federation as programs partners to deliver their high performance programs. Volunteers work in partnership with SINIS and the National Federations.
