Dear Mr Paskalev

Thank you for your dedication and professionalism in ensuring our virtual tour and promotional video was such a success.

The story board you created during the planning process ensured that the days of filming took place with minimal disruption to the school, and the children thoroughly enjoyed it.

Your willingness to work collaboratively during the editing sessions ensured that the final production was exactly what I had envisaged at the start of our journey.

Thank you once again – it was a pleasure to work with AVP Services.

Kindest regards

Miss Peacock
