

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To Whom it May Concern:

I write to recommend to you, Alex Kuhn, who recently completed an important commission for Holy Ghost Preparatory School. We are celebrating the diverse skills of our student-body with a grand mural adorning the walls of our new campus jewel, the Holt Center.

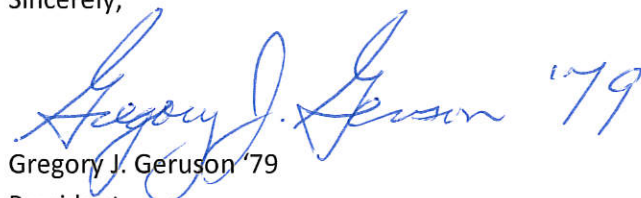

Very seldom do you meet a young, creative artist with such vision who also knows how to manage a large team, break down every step of the process, and surpass client expectations. I know Alex Kuhn to be intelligent, hardworking, patient, and exceedingly good at not only presenting the good news, but also (when he has to) working through the bad news. Though I do not know the specifics of the job to which he is applying, if you decide to hire him you will not be disappointed.

We asked Alex to work with our students in creating a large 40ft. mural in the atrium of the Holt Center which would represent the message, vision, and spirit of the Holy Ghost Prep community. During their Junior year, Alex patiently managed 15 students in the design phase, and then oversaw those same students to paint the mural in their senior year.

Alex Kuhn created a stunning mural inspired by the spirit of our community. It is an absolutely remarkable piece that brings great pleasure to all of us at Holy Ghost and is a perfect addition to our new building. Alex added so many fine details to the piece so that every time I pass by, I see something new. It is one of the highlight of any tour a give of the Holt Center.

We found Alex to be the consummate professional. He understood immediately what we needed, framed his terms clearly, established a timetable for the completion of his work, and handled communications with the student team. Additionally, Alex met all deadline and budget restrictions, kept us regularly informed of his progress through written bulletins, photographs, and personal meetings. I know that Alex worked exceptionally hard on this project and it is a true mark of his character that when time came for the big reveal, he gave all the credit to the students. In all things, he was reliable and exceptionally easy to work with. I give Alex my highest recommendation.

Sincerely,
