

As Pennsylvania Skill enters its 5th year, we have developed the Charitable Giving committee. Pennsylvania Skill, Pace-O-Matic of Pennsylvania and Miele Manufacturing are committed to improving the quality of life for our fellow Pennsylvanians. Please help us, by helping you make charitable donations in your community.

Together, we can and will make Pennsylvania a better place.

Our donations are made possible due to the success of legal Pennsylvania Skill games.

Since November of 2018, Pennsylvania Skill Charitable Giving is on pace to deliver half a million dollars to worthwhile charities across the Commonwealth.

WTAE and Salvation Army's Project Bundle Up in Pittsburgh

Pennsylvania Skill Charitable Giving made a contribution to the WTAE and Salvation Army's Project Bundle Up in Pittsburgh. The Salvation Army's Project Bundle-Up Program has been in existence for thirty-two years providing warm winter coats, hats, gloves, mittens and boots to vulnerable children and senior citizens throughout Western Pennsylvania. Each year the program helps approximately 5,000 children and senior citizens from low to middle income households purchase their own brand new winter outerwear. Hundreds of children are selected each year to participate in special shopping trips. During these trips, children have the opportunity to shop with local sports celebrities. Lynn Wheeland from Pennsylvania Skill presented the donation to Andrew Cader and Erin Ehrlich from the Salvation Army.

Central Pa Food Bank

The Pennsylvania Skill Charitable Giving team volunteered at the Central Pa Food Bank on January 16, 2019. Our crew of 20 packed boxes and backpacks for an hour and five minutes. During that time, they say we broke a record for speed, packing 850 bags of apples over that span! They have already assured us that they will have much more for our team to do next time!

The Central Pennsylvania Food Bank distributes more than 48 million pounds of food and grocery products, equivalent to more than 40 million meals, every year to more than 900 soup kitchens, shelters, and food pantries in 27 central Pennsylvania counties. These agencies directly feed thousands of hungry families throughout central Pennsylvania.

Thanks to all of our volunteers making life better and helping so many families in Pennsylvania!

Salvation Army Most Amazing Race

Sponsored by Pennsylvania Skill Charitable Giving, The Salvation Army's 3rd Annual Most Amazing Race, a scavenger hunt/urban style adventure-style race will be held April 13. Patterned after the CBS show "The Amazing Race", the Most Amazing Race combines physical and mental challenges which scatters teams of 2-4 throughout the Williamsport community in an effort to win the grand prize. This event helps to fund programs and services proved by the Salvation Army throughout the year: including Project Breakthrough (a program to lift families out of the cycle poverty); Red Shield Community Garden (a program that not only provides fish and vegetables to families and local food pantries, but teaches many how to grow fresh vegetables for their families); and Camp Ladore (a camping program for youth and seniors).

The Meadows Personal Care Community

Pennsylvania Skill Charitable Giving was honored to make a $200,000 donation to The Meadows, a Park Home Personal Care Community. This donation will help to subsidize the housing and care of our residents.

The Meadows is a place that's ideal for seniors who want to remain independent but who no longer wish to be burdened by the responsibilities of caring for their own home or property. Our facility is also a great option for individuals who no longer want to, or who are now unable to, live completely on their own.

Our community of active, older adults enjoys a comfortable, carefree lifestyle in an atmosphere of personalized service. Residents can choose how much, or how little, personal care and assistance they wish to receive based upon their individual needs and preferences.
