Keynote Speaker

Melvin J. Collier has spent innumerable days researching and documenting the history of his family in the Deep South and back to West Africa. His passion for history, writing, and researching led to him obtaining a Master of Arts degree in African American Studies. He has worked as an archivist and is now federally employed in the Washington, DC Metro area. Mr. Collier gives numerous presentations on historical and genealogical topics and he is the author of the book, “150 Years Later: Broken Ties Mended”.

Program also includes: Luncheon, Awards Ceremony, and Acknowledgements
