Verdict

Clearly tapping into the trend towards plant-based food, this Vegan friendly Mushroom Bolognese is made with brown cap and Porcini mushrooms, but didn't look the most appetising in its 'uninspiring' pack. Reviewed by a mainstream audience who welcomed its health credentials, many were pleasantly surprised, enjoying the 'herby' taste and concluding 'I am not a vegan but would buy' - although around 1 in 4 would only purchase on special offer.

|                  | ★★★★★       | 18%         | A very good vegan dish the tomato sauce with the mushrooms gave it a good flavour plenty of herbs in there as wellWow what a great product. Full of flavour tasty fillingLovely taste and texture. Smooth sauce                               |
|                  | ★★★★☆       | 32%         | Better than expectedGood texture to the pasta and chopped mushrooms. Good mushroom flavour to the sauce, but it needed a bit more seasoning.I liked the aroma, flavour and texture. It was surprisingly tasty. I would recommend this product |
|                  | ★★★☆☆       | 32%         | Not a massive fan but I would eat it if I needed something quickWould recommend to vegansThe spaghetti was nice lots of mushroom and sauce good all round meal  |
|                  | ★★☆☆☆       | 12%         | A healthy option but the taste was quite bland and didn't look very appealing.Tastes nice but too expensive for the quality and didn't look too appealingNot enough sauce for the amount of pasta, bland flavour, liked that it was vegan     |
|                  | ★☆☆☆☆       | 6%          | Poor quality. Uninspiring packaging and bland glutinous taste. Would not have this product if it was given away.Again, I'm not usually a fan of processed foods however I like that they are vegan.   |
